Another broker on Queen's Quay

Broker Brad Lamb, who markets both new condo projects and resale, has opened an office at 550 Queens Quay W., in the retail space associated with the waterfront condominium at that address.

"I came from the waterfront years ago. If you're on the lake, you do business on the lake. I want to get more of that business," says Lamb.

Well established on the lake is Re/Max Condos Plus, at 45 Harbour Sq., originally Stinson Realty, where Lamb used to work.

Another waterfront brokerage is Coldwell Banker Terrequity Realty at 10 Yonge St., located in the condo complex at the foot of Yonge St.

Lamb's long-term strategy is "to have seven strategically located offices, like the one on Queens Quay."

He has small offices on King St. W. and Front St. The next spot he's considering is Yorkville Ave. and Bay St.
